

Helping Homestay Families Support their International Students

At last, a micro-module that enables you as homestay families to relate well to your international students.

Many international students will likely experience some kind of culture shock as they settle into life in New Zealand. It's really helpful if homestay hosts and designated caregivers are aware of what students may experience and how they can support their settlement.

Phase 1
Initial arrival

Phase 2
Feeling uncertain

Phase 3
Getting used to things

Phase 4
More settled

This e-Learning course consists of three micro-modules that provide helpful tips and tools to assist you as homestay hosts with caring for your international students.

In the three micro-modules you will:

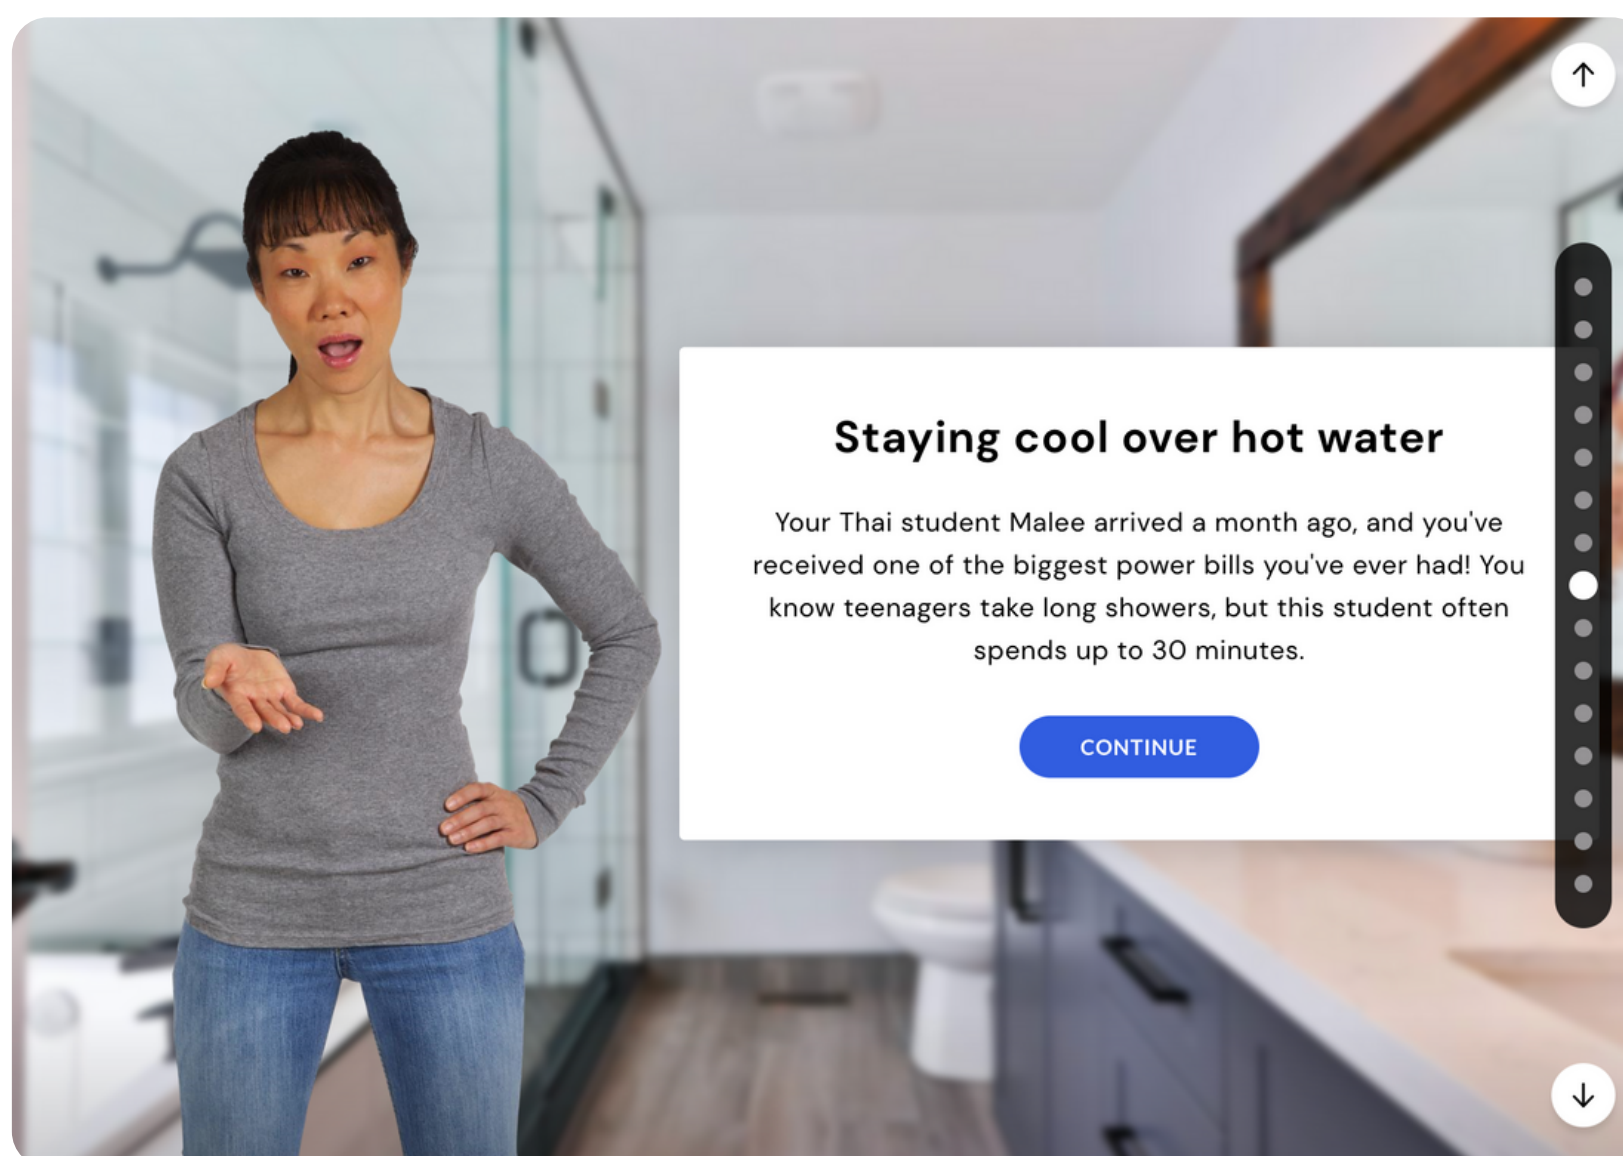

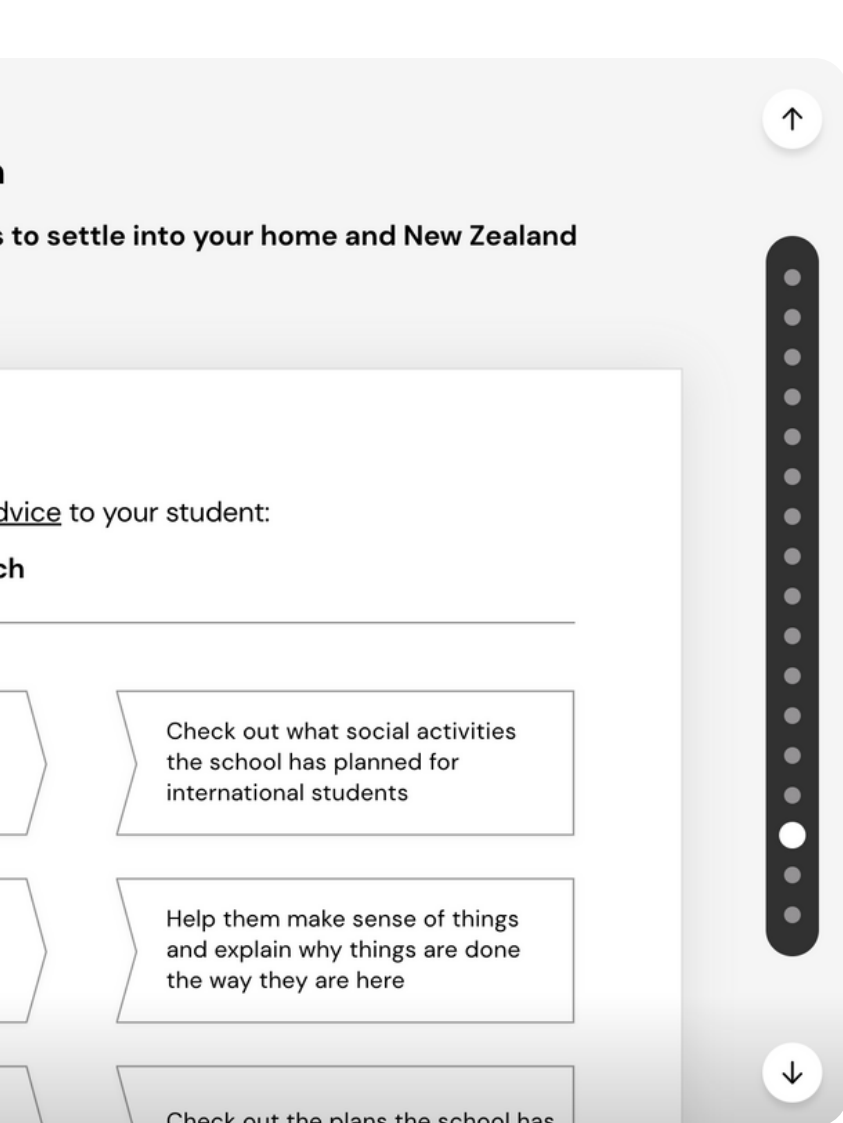

Read case studies and practical tips

Engage with interactive activities, tasks and, quizzes

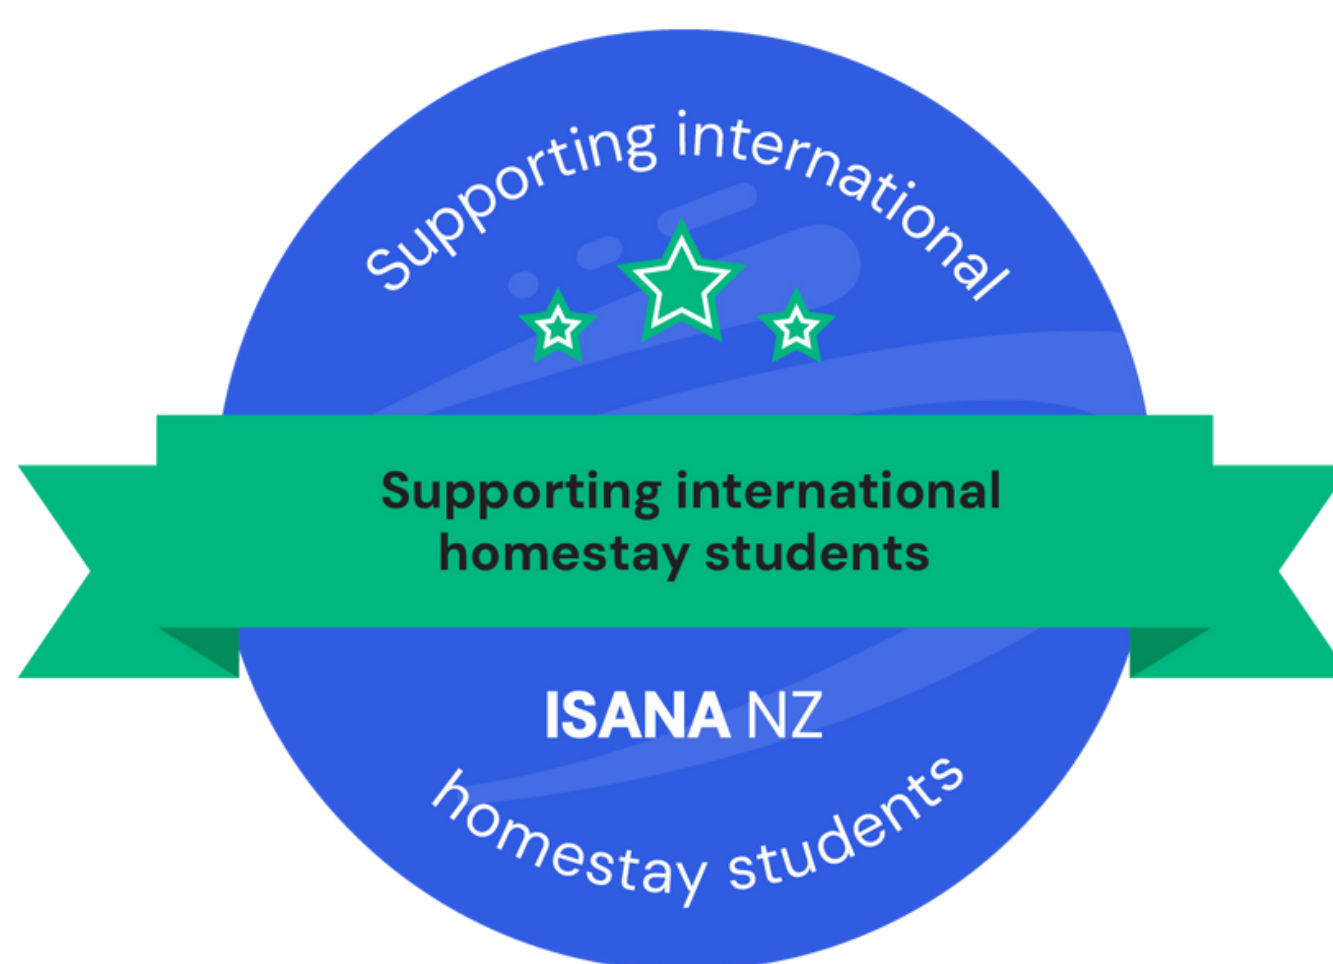

Access external webpages

You will learn about the student's cross-border journey, cultural differences and common homestay scenarios. Each micro-module only takes approximately 10 minutes to complete.

Upon completion, you will receive a digital badge which can be shared with Cambridge High School as evidence of training, which is a formal requirement of the Education Code of Practice 2021.

Email Cambridge High School Homestay Co-ordinator and we will get you enrolled for Free!
